School isn’t just about reading, writing, and arithmetic, it’s also about life skills. In the school garden, students have the opportunity to learn effective farming techniques, and how to care for their environment through composting and creative recycling. By giving seeds and training this gift helps kids proudly cultivate produce that also supplements nutritious and tasty school lunches.

A LIFE-CHANGING GIFT is being made ON YOUR BEHALF!

Find Food for the Hungry Canada on Facebook, or visit www.fhcanada.org